

Client Alert: Biden Releases Budget and Green Book

FINSECA Takes a Deep Dive into the Green Book

On Friday, May 28th the Biden Administration released the 6 trillion-dollar budget for the upcoming fiscal year. Accompanying the release of the 2022 budget package was the “Green Book”, which details the tax proposals contained within the budget.

For an in-depth analysis of the proposals contained within the green book and the potential impact these proposals will have on corporations and individuals alike, please click the link below.

FINSECA Budget and Green Book Summary

For more information on how this budget release may affect plan sponsors and individuals, please contact Mullin Barents Sanford Financial via this link.